Subject: John Goosehorn/Gooshorn family of Claiborne County

Attn: Genealogy Department
Pascagoula Library

Dear Sherry:

Thank you for your recent telephone call about my search for family information about planter John Gooshorn/Gooshorn of Claiborne County. I am looking for copies of any documents relating to John and his children and descendants which would --:

- 1) Help confirm the belief that John came to Mississippi from Pennsylvania about 1803. He appeared, single, on a personal property tax roll in Claiborne County in 1807.
- 2) Detail his service in the War of 1812. He served as a private in the infantry company of Capt. Francis Wood in Lt. Col. David Neilsen's detachment of Mississippi militia. He mustered out at New Orleans. His records may be filed under the spelling "Gorham." The Goosehorn/Gooshorn/Goshorn name was often misspelled.
- 3) Give any information on the death of John's wife, Catharine (Winkler) Gooshorn. She was last listed as a female 30 and under 40 in the 1840 Claiborne County census. She apparently was about 18 years younger than John.
- 4) Confirm a report that John's daughter Virginia married one Alpheus Lowe/Lowes in Claiborne County on March 17, 1854.
- 5) Locate an obituary or death record for Virginia (Gooshorn) Lowe, who was last recorded in the 1900 census and is thought to have died about 1908, aged 80-82.
- 6) Locate an obituary or death record for John's son, George Stilwell Gooshorn, who is known to have married neighbor Jane Job July 2, 1851, and to have died sometime in 1856. His widow remarried in November of 1856. George was born about 1831.
- 7) Locate an obituary or death record for John's daughter Elizabeth Gooshorn, single, who died about 1910.
- 8) Locate an obituary or death record for John's daughter Catherine Patsy Gooshorn, who is said to have died in May 1921 at the age of 80.
- 9) Locate a birth record in 1855-1856 for John R. Gooshorn/Goshorn, son of George Stilwell Gooshorn and Jane Job. The 1860 census for Claiborne County lists "James: Goosehorn," four years old, with Jane and Daniel Slaton. The 1870 Claiborne census lists "John R. Goushorn," 16, with Jane Slaton.
- 10) Locate a birth record in 1854-1855 for the "Virginia Goosehorn," five, listed in the 1860 census with Jane and Daniel Slaton in Claiborne. No other reference to this Virginia has been found.
- 11) Locate an obituary for Octavia Josephine Gooshorn/Goshorn, who died June 27, 1943, in Claiborne County. The 1900 census said Octavia was born in 1845.

I apologize for the length of this list, but I have many questions and your library is listed as an extremely good source for genealogical information about Mississippi. Thank you for any assistance you may be able to give me in this quest.

Subject: RE: John Goosehorn/Gooshorn family of Claiborne County

Dear Mr. Goshorn:

I will try to answer the questions that I am able to and give the reasons why I'm not able to provide the other answers.

For Questions 3, 5, 6, 7, 9, 10 - birth and death certificates were not required in Mississippi until 1912. There are no official birth records for Mississippi in the 1800s. I know of no church records in existence that will provide that information for Claiborne County. I don't have access to Claiborne County newspaper microfilm to search for obituaries from Claiborne County. You could try the library in Claiborne County, but most libraries will require an exact date of death before they will do a newspaper microfilm search. I don't know when newspapers started being published in Claiborne County.

Question 1: John apparently died before 1850, which is when census records started stating birthplace. Have you checked the census records for any of his children who were living in 1880? That was the first year that they started listing the birth state or country (if other than U.S.) of the person's mother and father. So there should be an indication of whether their father was born in Pennsylvania. I have no way of confirming whether he came to Mississippi about 1803; this could take many hours of research to prove and would probably have to be done in the courthouse records of Claiborne County and in the courthouse records of the county that he moved here from. A comparison of when the records in his original county of residence ceased and then when his names begins appearing in Claiborne County may be the only way to "prove" this. A comparison of census records of Mississippi and Pennsylvania with the name Goshorn could help, also. It would probably have to be an assumption made on the overall comparison of records of the two places as to approximately when he left one place and arrived at the other. It would be an extremely lucky find if you were to find actual documentation stating that information.

Question 2: I found two cards for John Gooshorn on the "Compiled Service Records of Volunteer Soldiers Who Served During The War of 1812 in Organizations From the Territory of Mississippi." He is, indeed, listed as being in Lt. Col. Neilson's Detachment, Mississippi Militia. This, however, was the only information that we were able to find about his War of 1812 service. I do find a Robert Goshorn listed in "Index to War of 1812 Pension Files" by Virgil D. White as:

Goshorn, Robert or Robert Goshor or Robert Gooshorn, SC-13414, Agnes ( ) m 18 Jan 1816 in Mifflin City, PA, srvc Mathew Rogers' PA Mil, lived Blair City, PA, Louise & Madison Cts IA - Should you need this information, you can write to the National Archives.

Question 4: I find, on the "Soundex to Mississippi Marriages Prior to 1926" microfilm that we have here in the department, a marriage between Alpheus (though it looks on the entry almost like "Alfred" - difficult to read) Lowe and what looks to be something like Goss Horne, Virginia. This part, too, is very hard to read, as is the county that the marriage took place. It appears as if someone wrote one thing, then perhaps wrote "Claiborne" over it. I can send you a copy of the entry from the microfilm if you wish. You might prefer to just order a copy of the original marriage record from the Claiborne County Courthouse at Claiborne Chancery Clerk, 410 Main St., Port Gibson, MS 39150; Telephone: (601) 437-4992. I can't even guarantee that it actually does say Claiborne County.

I did also find in Claiborne County, MS "Hunting For Bears" marriage book the entry:

6/28/2006

Pascagoula Public Library
Local History & Genealogy Department
Goshorn Family

3-17-1854 Lows, Alfred – Gorsham, Virginia.

Other marriages found in this same "Hunting For Bears" marriage book: Goshorn, John R married Elizabeth Althlon 4/9/1888. And George Goosham md Jane Job 7/2/1851. Mary A Goosham md George Schultz 12/31/1895. Mary I Goosham md Robert Haller 1/30/1869. Jane Gooshan md Daniel Slaton 11/12/1856. You have probably already figured this out, but I would imagine that the Virginia Goosehorn, age 5, you found on the 1860 census living with Daniel and Jane Slaton could be a child of George and Jane Job Goshorn, stepdaughter to Daniel Slaton? I looked it up and it looks like there is also a James Goshorn, age 4, living with the Slatons. There is also a Robert & Sarah Job living just a couple of houses away from the Slaters.

Question 8: I did find, on the Mississippi Death Certificate Index microfilm, which covers the years from 1912-1943, the following entry:

Goosehorn, Catherine-Claiborne Co-white-8796-1921

The 3rd entry is the race, the fourth is the certificate number and the last is the year of death. You should be able to get a copy of her death certificate from the MS Dept of Vital Records. Information on how to obtain the certificate is at http://www.msdl.state.ms.us/msdhsite/\_static/31,0,109.html.

Question 11: I find, on the Mississippi Death Certificate Index microfilm, which covers the years from 1912-1943, the following:

1943 - Gushorn, Octavia J, Claiborne County, race:black, month of death June, Certificate #8051. There is actually another entry, listed under "Gusham" with the same certificate # and all of the other info matches the first entry. They probably couldn't decipher the name and made two entries with the 2 different spellings. This could be ordered from MS Dept of Vital Records, like the previous entry for Catherine Goosehorn.

You will almost certainly have to contact or visit the Claiborne County area for information on your ancestors who resided there. That's just the way genealogy works – most of the records dealing with a family are going to be in the county where they resided.

You might try contacting the Claiborne-Jefferson Genealogical Society, 6698 Redlick Road, Lorman, MS 39096. I don't find a phone number for them, but then most genealogy societies don't have a phone contact listed. They do have a website at <http://www.rootsweb.com/~msclaib3/cjgsociety.htm>, but there's not much there other than address and officers' names.

You might try the Claiborne County library at <http://www.win.net/%7Ekudzu/library.html>, for any obit requests, but keep in mind that most libraries will require an exact date of death before they will search the microfilm.

I searched the books that we have on Claiborne County and found a few things which may be of interest:

I did find, in "Roots 'N Records Genealogical Column, 1991-1992, Reveille, Port Gibson, Mississippi" (on page 66) by Joyce Shannon Bridges, a "Will Listings for Claiborne County" article. The first date is that of the will, the second date is the probate or recording date:

Gooshorn, John, 4 Feb. 1854, 24 Apr 1854, Will Book B, page 244.

You should be able to write to the Claiborne County Courthouse for a copy of these records. The next entry also deals with John's estate.

There was also, in "Early Claiborne County, MS Records, Volume 1" by Mary Lois S. Ragland in a section titled "Index To Papers of Decedents, Claiborne County, MS, Chancery Clerk's Office":

Date: 1854      Name of Estate: Gooshorn, John      # of Packages: G-6

Mrs. Jennie Goshorn Russel, 78, died in a Vicksburg hospital April 10, 1956. A native of Grand Gulf, she leaves two daughters, Mrs. J. T. Jobe and Mrs. May Barnes; and three son, W.O., F.A., and E.A. Barnes. (Looking Back Column, Port Gibson, Mississippi, Reveille, 1996," page 38)

Russell, Jennie Goshorn (Widowed)

Born: 20 August 1877 Claiborne Co, MS. Died: 10 April 1956, Vicksburg, MS. Father: John Goshorn. Mother: Elizabeth Cox. Informant: Mrs. J. T. Jobe. Sons: W.D. Barnes, F.A. Barnes, E.A. Barnes. Daughters: Mrs. J. T. Jobe, Mrs. May Barnes. Service: Guion Chapel. Burial: Wintergreen Cemetery, Port Gibson, MS. ("Genealogy From Glenwood Funeral Home Records, Port Gibson, MS," page 26) Note: We have a Wintergreen Cemetery book, and I don't find any Goshorns listed, so she may be in an unmarked grave. You should be able to get a death certificate for her, though, if that would be helpful. You could also request a copy of her obit from the Claiborne County library, since you have her exact date of death.

I'm sorry that I couldn't answer all of your questions, but those early birth and death records that you seek probably just don't exist anywhere. I hope that I typed this information up in a way that is easy enough to understand, if you have questions about any of it, let me know and I'll try to make it clearer. I hope that the information that I was able to find will be helpful. I can send you copies of any or all of this information if you would like; just let me know.

Sincerely,

Every effort has been made to present these listings without error. The handwriting of the recorder made interpretations difficult on some entries.
